and RELS 210—Hebrew Bible
School of Religion
Queen’s University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The School of Religion at Queen’s University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching an undergraduate course in Christianity (RELS 218) This is an on-campus, upper level lecture course with an expected enrolment of ~35 students. The class is scheduled for Mondays 4:00-5:30 and Wednesdays 2:30-4:00.

The School of Religion at Queen’s University also invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching an undergraduate course in Hebrew Bible (RELS 210). This is an on-campus, upper level lecture course with an expected enrolment of ~20 students. The class is scheduled for Tuesdays 4:00-5:30 and Thursdays 2:30-4:00.

Candidates should have a Ph.D, and teaching experience at the University level in Religious Studies. This is a winter term appointment for the period January 1, 2020 to April 30, 2020, with classes in session from January 6 to April 3.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen’s is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Mary Smida, in The School of Religion, at school.of.religion@queensu.ca or 613-533-2109.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at <http://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/faculty-librarians-and-archivists/queens-qufa-collective-agreement>.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: “I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”; OR, “I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada”. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters sent directly to:
